Head Quarters at Herenthout, June 20, N. S.

THE Allied Army is ſtill in the ſame Poſition behind the Great Nethe, though ſome conſiderable Detachments have been made from it.

The 16th Inſtant the Comte de St. Germain, Lieutenant General, advanced with a conſiderable Body of French Troops towards the Demar, where General Baroniai was poſted, in order to diſlodge him from the Poſts which he occupied, and to get Poſſeſſion of the Heights along that River, which command, in ſeveral Places, the Routes which lead towards Maeſtricht; for this Purpoſe he advanced with 13 Battalions and 10 Pieces of Cannon to Dieſt, and attack'd it; but Major Beck, who commanded ſome Hundred Irregulars in that Place, defended himſelf till the Arrival of the Succour which was ſent him; upon which the Enemy, finding ſo much Difficulty in diſlodging even the Irregulars, retired.

As by the Motions of the Enemy there was Reaſon to believe their whole Army was on the March towards Tirlemont, his Royal Highneſs the Duke ſent Orders to Prince Wolfembuttle to advance with the Corps de Reſerve from Weſterloo to the Abby of Everbode, and at the ſame Time order'd the ſecond Line of the Left Wing to march under the Command of General Sommerfeldt, to Weſterloo, in order to ſuſtain the Corps de Reſerve. At Break of Day on the 17th, the whole Army remained in Order of Battle, at the Head of their Camps, that in Caſe of Neceſſity they might be ready to march by the Left; but the Enemy remaining quiet in their Camp behind the Dyle, and withdrawing all their Detachments which were advanced towards us, the Army retired to their Camp again.

The Lycanians, ſupported by ſome regular Foot, attack'd, the 17th in the Morning, the Enemy's Rear Guard: They killed about 60, wounded 100, and took as many Priſoners: This Attack alarm'd the Enemy ſo much, that they abandon'd at once all the Poſts about the Demar, which they were in Poſſeſſion of, and amongſt others, that of Hallen on the River, in which they at firſt ſeemed to have an Inclination to maintain themſelves. General Baroniai is advanced at preſent beyond Sichem, on the other Side of the River, and the Dutch Cavalry, which formed a third Line, is moved to the Ground which the ſecond Line of the Left Wing occupied before.

The 30 Squadrons which were detached with Prince Saxe Hildburghauſen, have joined the Army, having been relieved by 16 Squadrons under the Command of Lieutenant General Philibert and Major General Montigni.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke has removed his Head Quarters to this Village, in order to be nearer the Left of the Army; and Marſhal Bathiani is come to Keſſels, in the Front of the Imperialiſts.

Yeſterday his Royal Highneſs, accompanied by Marſhal Bathiani and Prince Waldeck, reconnoitred the Country along the Demar, between Hallen and Arſchot. The Corps of French, under Comte St. Germain, changed its Poſition Yeſterday, and have put Hallen upon their Right Flank. They were within Sight of Baroniai's Camp.

Hague, June 20, N. S. The Paris Letters of the 16th Inſtant bring Advice, that the French Army under Marſhal de Belleiſle paſſed the Var upon the 3d; they found but forty Men and two Officers in Nice; Montalban held out but from three in the Morning till five at Night, the 5th; the next Day the Attack of Villafranca was begun, and as the Grand Prior was advanced to attack it by Sea with his armed Veſſels, it was thought that it could not hold out long; the Garriſon of Montalban conſiſted of but one hundred Men and two Officers. The Allies were retired to Ventimiglia, where they are fortifying themſelves; they had blown up a Paſs, which will coſt the French a great deal of Time and Labour to make practicable. The States General publiſhed, laſt Saturday, a Placart, containing a Kind of Embargo on all Dutch Ships, which are forbid Sailing, unleſs they give up to the Admiralty one Man in three of their whole Crew, at the Choice of their reſpective Colleges in whoſe Juriſdiction they are fitted out. All Fiſhing

[Price Two-pence.]

Fiſhing Smacks, Ships intended for the great Fiſhery, and that of Herrings, and thoſe of the Eaſt India Company, as well as all Foreign Veſſels, are expreſly excepted, and permitted to ſail without Reſtriction. This Order is to ſubſiſt till the Fleet which is fitting out has its full Complement of Men; thoſe who ſhall diſobey, to forfeit both Ship and Cargo, or the Value thereof. The laſt Letters from Paris mention the entire Deſtruction of the City of Lima by an Earthquake; and there is a Report here among the Jews, that ſeventeen Provinces in Peru have revolted, and choſen themſelves a Chief, in order to ſhake off the Spaniſh Yoke.

Fluſhing, June 22, N. S. By all Accounts it is confirmed, that the French have very few Troops in their new Conqueſts; and that the Deſign upon this Province from Sas Van Ghent is certainly laid aſide. We hear that the Troops that were at Bruſſels marched to the Army the 15th in the Morning. Marſhal Saxe ſet out about Ten, and the French King was to follow in the Evening. Yeſterday Se'nnight the Corps under the Count de Clermont was at Tirlemont, and above 12000 Men, with the Count d'Etrees, were encamped at St. Tron, beſides which a Body of 6000 Men arrived on Tueſday Evening at Namur, which were thought to be deſtined with the regular Troops of that Garriſon to bring up the heavy Artillery. There is Advice, that the Troops under the Prince of Clermont had actually joined thoſe under M. d'Etrees, and that they were encamped a little League on the other Side of St. Tron. The French had ordered all the Abbeys about Namur to furniſh a large Quantity of Faſcines immediately.
